Jean Baptiste Pointe Du Sable

1745-1818

Du Sable the Man...First Chicago Settler

Jean Baptiste Pointe Du Sable, a black man, was the first person to settle in Chicago.

His journey to Chicago begins in Saint Marc, Haiti, his birthplace, in approximately 1745. He went to France as a youth to be educated and at twenty moved to New Orleans looking for business as a fur trader.

Next, he settled with his Indian wife, Catherine, whom he married at Cahokia, on October 27, 1788, at what we now know as Peoria. In 1772, he moved up the Mississippi and Illinois Rivers to a place the Indians called Eschikagou, place of bad smells, on the north bank of the Chicago River. Here he built a log cabin and eight other buildings, the first permanent settlement.

His son was born in 1774 and his daughter, Suzanne in 1775. Both were born in Chicago. During the Revolutionary War in 1778, he was arrested by the British as a plotter and imprisoned at Fort Mackinac. He was soon released to run a British-owned farm and trading post called "the Pinery," on the St. Clair River, near Detroit.

His daughter married Jean Baptiste Pelletier in 1792 at Eschikagou. On October 8, 1796, a granddaughter, Eulalia was born to him. She was baptized in 1799.

Jean Baptiste Pointe Du Sable was the first to see Chicago as a trade center and a crossroad, and the first to bring culture to Chicago. In 1800, he sold all his Chicago property to a man named Jean Lamile. The bill of sale shows that he possessed oil paintings, mirrors, some French furniture and furnishings, and also carpenters' tools. He was referred to as a man of fine tastes and refinement by his possessions.

He became a United States citizen, acquired a government land grant of which he received 800 acres of land, and set up his trading post, all in 1783.

After the death of his wife, in 1809, he left Peoria and his land to his son and his Potawatomi relatives. His son died in 1811, fighting on the side of the Indians against the Americans, probably at Tippecanoe.

Du Sable settled in St. Charles in 1810 and in 1813 deeded his land to his granddaughter after she married Michel de Roi. According to the deed she was to look after her grandfather until his death. At the age of about 73, on August 29, 1818, Jean Baptiste Pointe Du Sable died. His resting place is in St. Charles.

In Memoriam

Martin Luther King Jr.

1929-1968

"I Have a Dream"

"I say to you today, my friends, so even though we face the difficulties of today and tomorrow, I still have a dream. It is a dream deeply rooted in the American dream. I have a dream that one day this nation will rise up...live out the true meaning of its creed--we hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal.

I have a dream that one day on the red hills of Georgia, the sons of former slaves and the sons of former slave-owners will be able to sit down together at the table of brotherhood.

I have a dream that one day, even the state of Mississippi, a state sweltering with the heat of injustice, sweltering with the heat of oppression, will be transformed into an oasis of freedom and justice.

I have a dream that my four little children will one day live in a nation where they will not be judged by the color of their skin but by content of their character. I have a dream today!

I have a dream that one day, down in Alabama, with its vicious racists, with its governor having his lips dripping with the words of interposition and nullification, one day, right there in Alabama, little black boys and black girls will be able to join hands with little white boys and white girls as sisters and brothers. I have a dream today!

I have a dream that one day every valley shall be exalted, and every hill and mountain shall be made low, the rough places shall be made plain, and the crooked places shall be made straight and the glory of the Lord will be revealed and all flesh shall see it together.

This is our hope. This is the faith that I go back to the South with. With this faith we will be able to hew out of the mountain of despair a stone of hope. With this faith we will be able to transform the jangling discords of our nation into a beautiful symphony of brotherhood.

With this faith we will be able to work together, to pray together, to struggle together, to go to jail together, to stand up for freedom together, knowing that we will be free one day. This will be the day when all of God's children will be able to sing with new meaning--'my country 'tis of thee; sweet land of liberty; of thee I sing; land where my fathers died, land of the pilgrims' pride; from every mountain side, let freedom ring'--and if America is to be a great nation, this must become true.

So let freedom ring from the prodigious hilltops of New York.

Let freedom ring from the heightening Alleghenies of Pennsylvania.

Let freedom ring from the snow-capped Rockies of Colorado.

Let freedom ring from the curvaceous slopes of California. But not only there.

Let freedom ring from Stone Mountain of Georgia.

Let freedom ring from Lookout Mountain of Tennessee.

Let freedom ring from every hill and molehill of Mississippi, from every mountainside let freedom ring.

And when this happens, when we allow freedom to ring, when we let it ring from every village and every hamlet, from every state and every city, we will be able to speed up that day when all of God's children--black men and white men, Jews and Gentiles, Protestants and Catholics--will be able to join hands and sing in the words of the old Negro spiritual. 'Free at last, free at last, thank God Almighty, we are free at last'."

Education Power

DuSable students realize that knowledge is power, that knowledge provides insights into both the simplicities and complexities of their modern world. They believe that the more they know the farther in life they will be able to go. Du Sableites want to excel in life, in their personal lives and in society. With the help of education this goal can be fulfilled.

Panthers Pull a Victory at Homecoming!

Sweet victory rang out for DuSable this year. The defeat of Bowen added to the gaiety of both the game and dance. The parade, led by the Majorettes, introduced the queen, Viola Toliver, and her court.

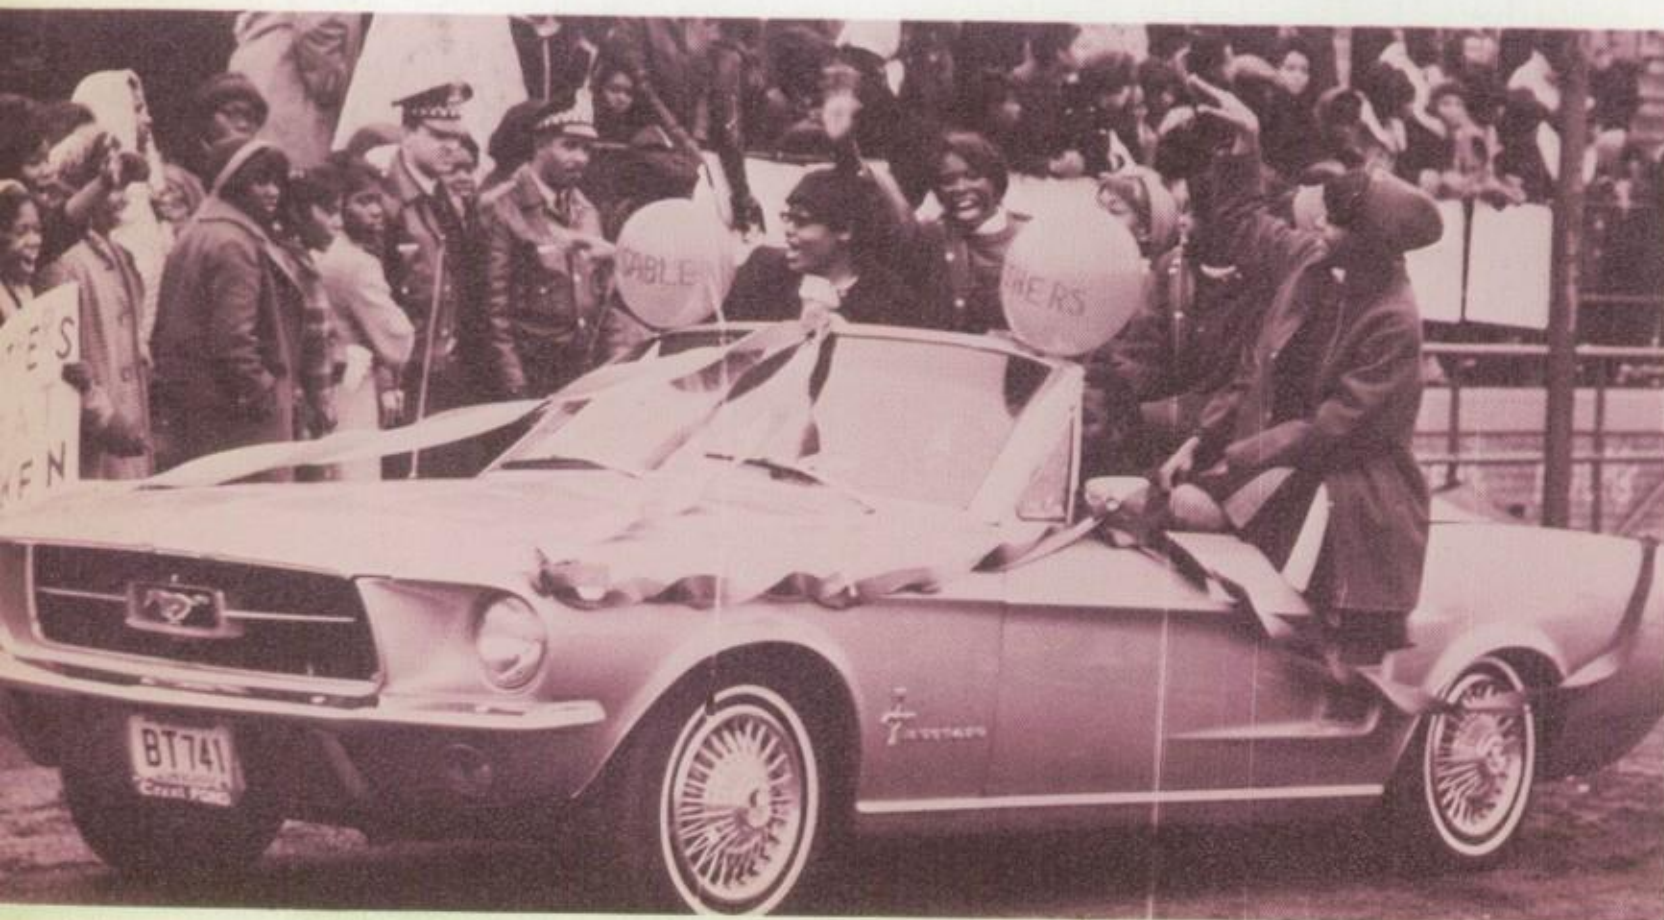

Queen Viola Toliver beams radiantly as her subjects greet Bowen's student body.

Lovely members of the court are both gracious and poised. Eileen Windham, Joanne Robinson, and Vera Ward.

Court members Ruvenia Thomas and Ruby Jackson are chauffeured by Mr. Ronald Kimmons.

Everybody here is undoubtedly enjoying themselves!

Georgia Houston's escort may not be able to dance, but she certainly doesn't seem to mind at all!

"Dance to the music..."

The "Pas de deux" is expertly performed by two members of the ballet troupe.

"The Look of Love"

Ruth Page explains some of the techniques of ballet.

Le Ballet à Du Sable!

The internationally known ballet troupe directed by Ruth Page provided DuSable viewers with an educational and entertaining experience. DuSableites were stimulated by the group's adept presentation of the graceful traditional and expressive modern ballets.

Surrealistic dance is one modern development of ballet.

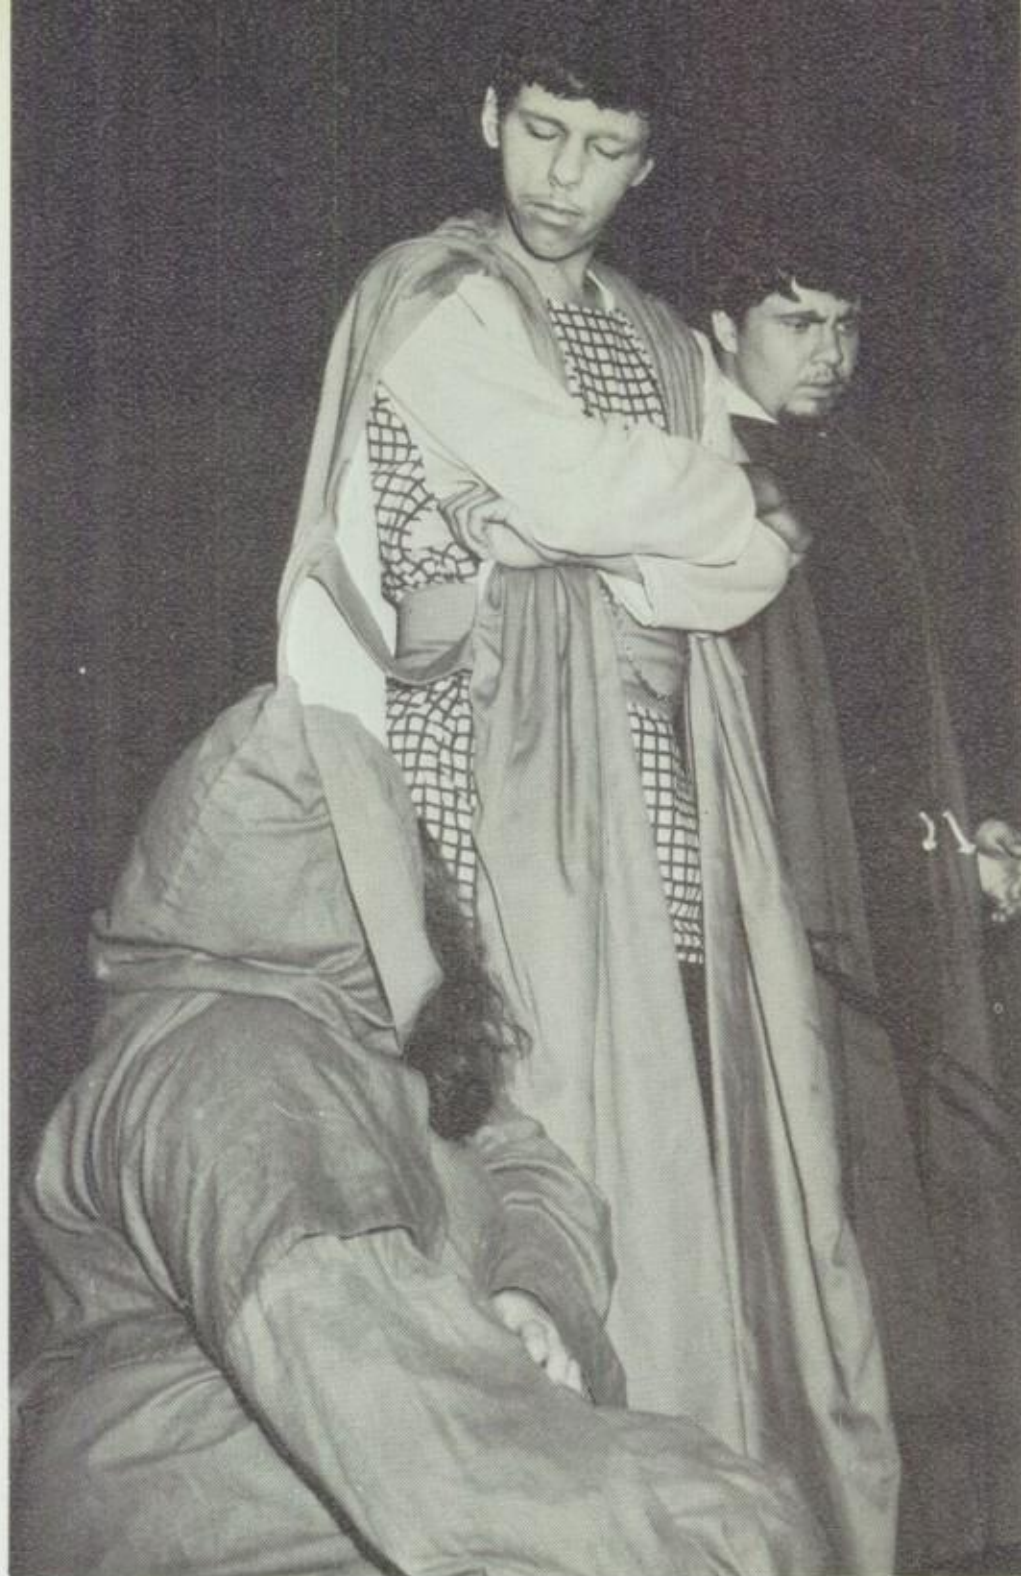

"Double, Double Toil and Trouble..."

On November 1, 1967, a record number of DuSableites saw the tragedy of Macbeth unfurl upon our stage. Shakespeare's immortal drama was portrayed by the well-known Drama Guild of Wilson Junior College.

Lady Macbeth, already plotting the murder of King Duncan, accompanies him into the castle.

King Duncan murdered, Macbeth and his wife now rule all of Scotland. They are suspicious of all--especially of Banquo, a long-time, loyal friend.

The noble Banquo (front) scoffs at the prophecies of the Witches.

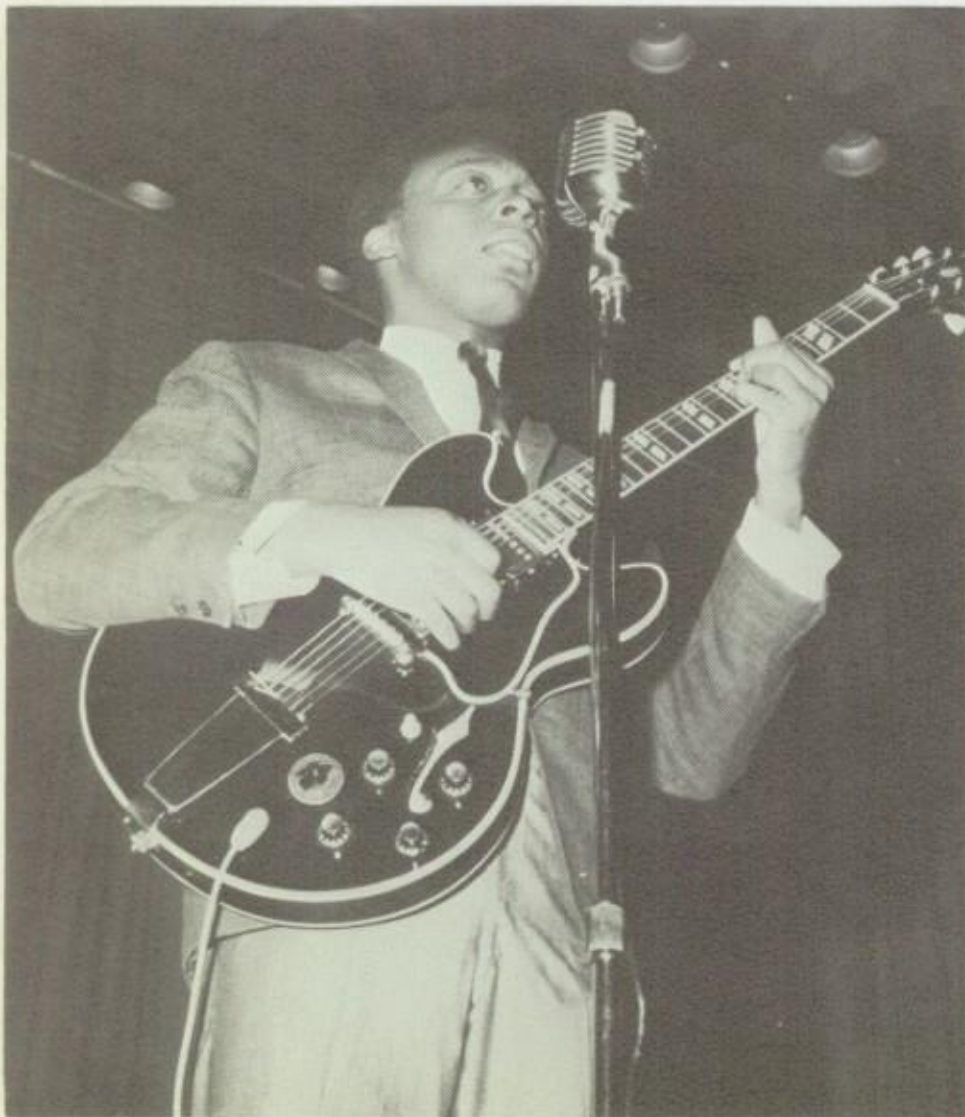

Lil Armstrong, well-known jazz pianist, pounds her heart into the piano as she plays "The St. Louis Blues."

"The Evolution of Jazz" Swings at Du Sable!

A musician ensnared by such moving rhythms can even play with his eyes shut!

The blues never sounded better than when Bobby King sang "There's a Man Down There."

The Hutchinson Sisters project the bitter-sweet melody and meaning of the Negro Spiritual.

Du Sableites were fortunate to witness the Red Saunders Band and well-known singers as they presented a musical history of Jazz. This music, which is appreciated the world over, has its roots in the passionate musical expression of the black people of America. The Negro Spiritual and the Blues are both forerunners of Jazz - the music with the soul stirring beat.

Red Saunders, a band leader of reknown, can almost make his drums talk!

Congo drums and African attire emphasize the black man's relationship to the jazz beat.

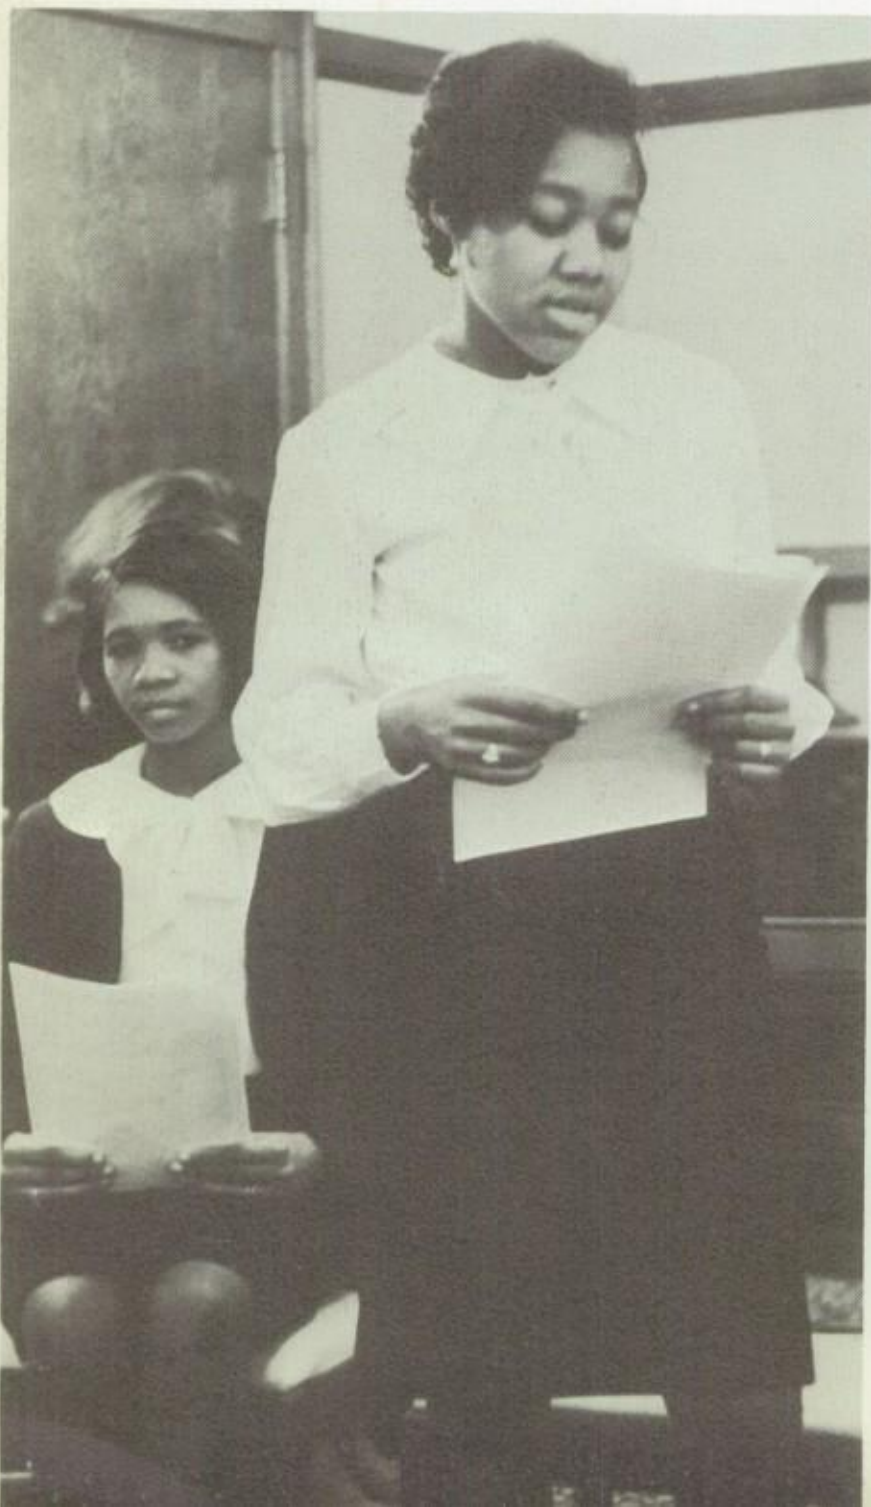

A song is not the only thing of beauty.

Step into the Business World!

Business; the key word associated with every interested member of the F.B.L.A. This year the membership boom continued. This is, without a doubt, due to the interest of our business-minded DuSableites. Interest, along with a business course, is one of the necessary requirements to be a member of the club. The club's year was highlighted by the dance at which the F.B.L.A. queen was selected.

Just a few of the proud F.B.L.A. inductees following the ceremony.

Vice-President Deborah Davis officiates during induction ceremony.

The guest speaker gives some inspirational tips to the Future Business Leaders of America.

F.B.L.A.'s Year Accented by Queen and Dance.

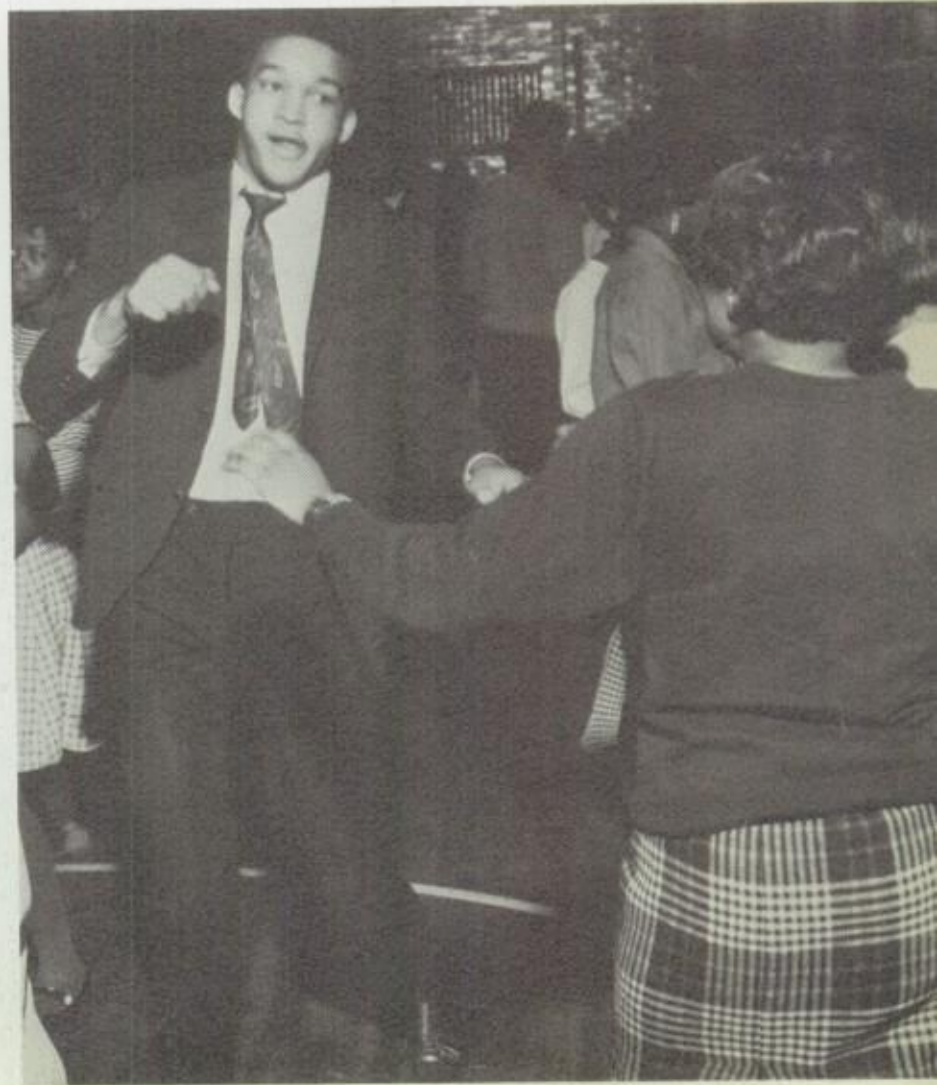

Alma Williams, Diane Faulkner, Jeanette Short, Dyanne Howard, Maxine Smith are all candidates for the F.B.L.A. queen.

Mrs. Smith (left), sponsor of the F.B.L.A., and Rosemary Scott, president of F.B.L.A., pose with top ticket seller and F.B.L.A. queen, Maxine Smith.

A dance contest and, of course, the African Twist.

"I got that feeling!"

Roller Skating Follies!

"Come on, baby! Put it here," says Nancy Thompson.

All for Fun and Fun for All!

When Du Sableites think of fun places, they automatically think of the Time Square, The Club, and, of course, Activity Night at Du Sable. For the mere price of one dollar our students buy an Activity Pass to use for six months at Du Sable's fun-filled Friday Night sessions.

Donald Morris (center) stresses to Jimmy Morris (shooting) that he give the ball the gentle touch.

"I thought that ace was played already," gripes Diane Faulkner.

"I got it that time."

Basketball, swimming, ping-pong, volleyball, checkers, cards, pool, skating, and dancing make up the activities that Du Sableites invariably enjoy.

Basketball at Activity is strictly a come-as-you-are game.

Inductees march to stage for special "trial" for new members.

Inductees plead guilty to the charge of being excellent students.

Commander George Sims, a former DuSableite, delivers welcome address.

Honors Come to Those Deserving

Students who rank high on the scholastic totem pole are members of the Honor Society. This organization reaches out for all of our most industrious students whose grades reflect their efforts. These students have maintained a "B" average for at least two years and as a result are inducted into the society during a special assembly. This year, over twenty students were inducted. Next year, let us have twice as many.

Principal Byron Minor invites Society Members, their families, and friends to reception in their honor.

Mrs. Diane Hinton, new sponsor of the Honor Society, graciously serves Commander Sims.

Cassandra Spooner (right) and her proud mother enjoy the entertainment.

Old members and new gather around the frosty punch bowl.

Janice Gilbert touches the hearts of all with "A Christmas Song."

Proud families and friends of the new inductees.

Beta Club Barters Bonnets!

Variety and style overpowered both the buyers and spectators at the Beta Club's annual hat sale. The straw hats of brilliant colors and soft pastels and fully flowered bonnets certainly brought a touch of spring to Du Sable ladies.

Mrs. Clark, Olivia Warren, and Miss Pope display hats for their customers.

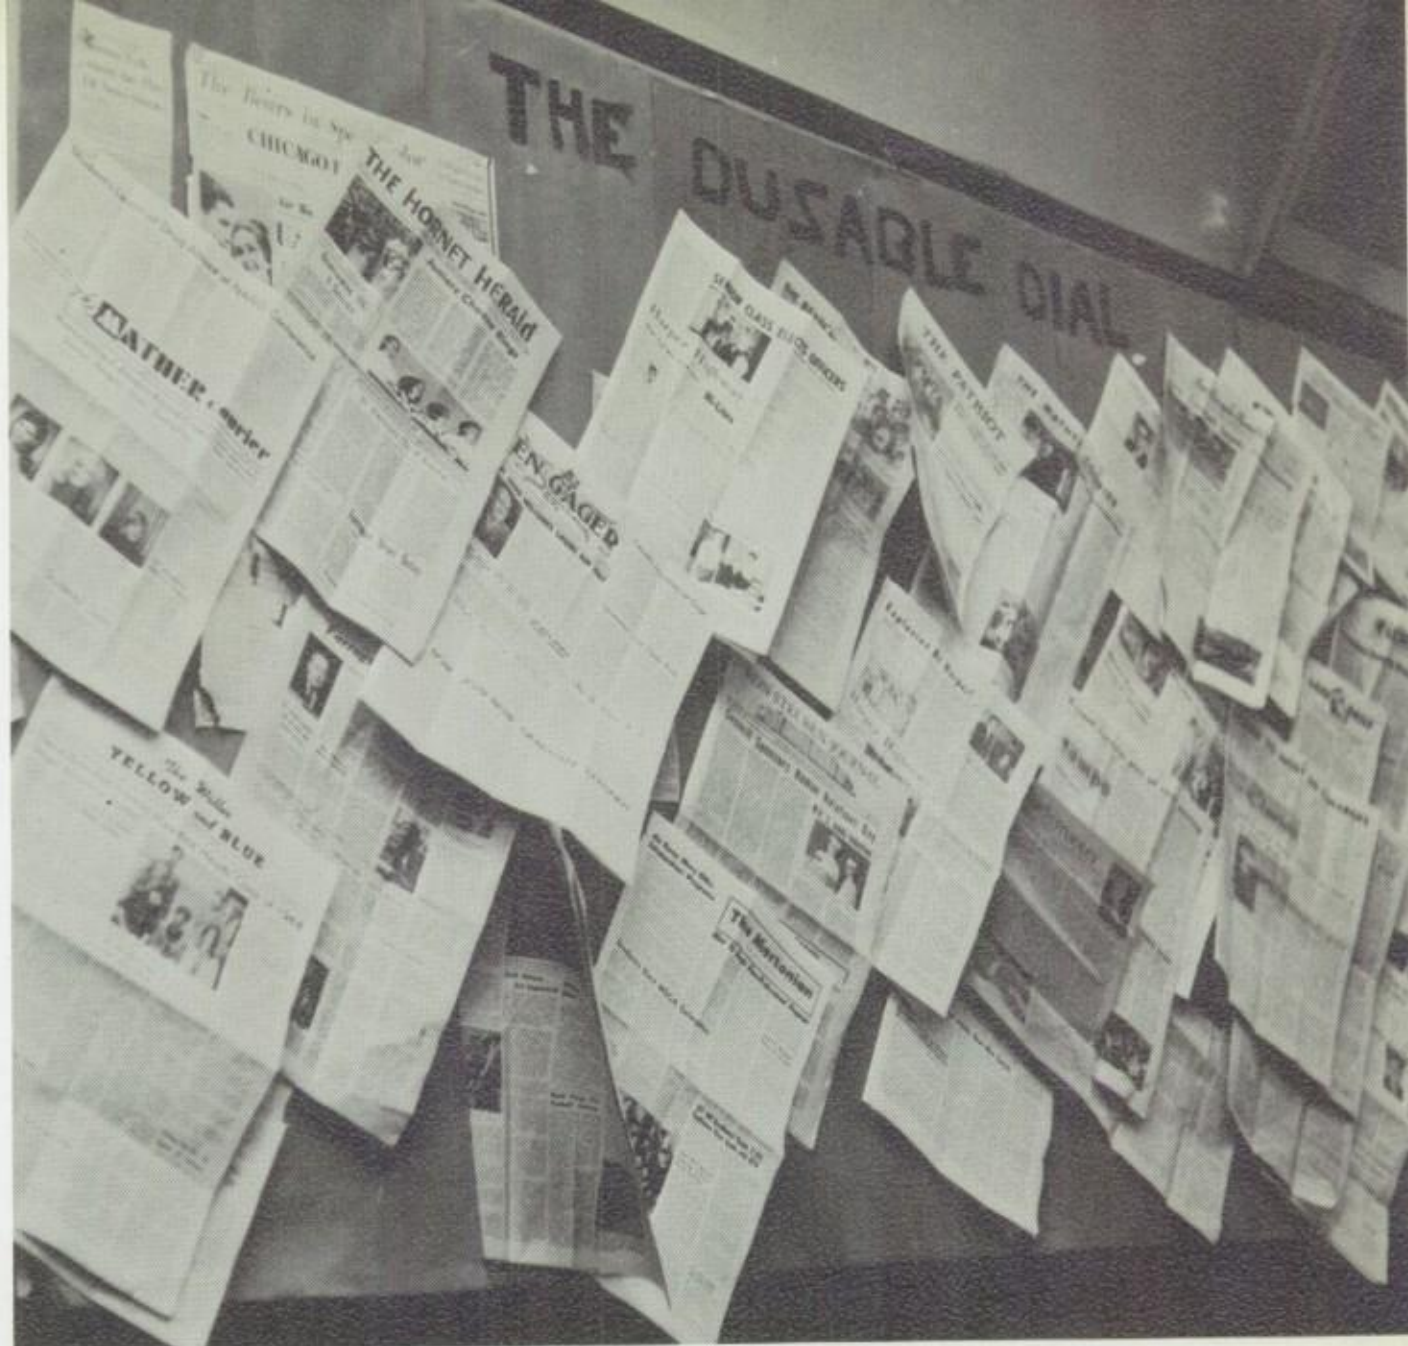

Du Sablelites and Mrs. Martin model their spring bonnets.

This hat looks more like a baseball cap than a bonnet!

Dial Is Greater Than Ever!!

Papers...papers...papers from everywhere!

The Dial's stride to success was led by Mrs. Dumetz, the Dial's new sponsor, along with co-editors Glenda Mingo and Thirza Thomas.

Merit is given to the number of new columns added to the paper, and the staff members who had the insight to write what pleased the Dial readers. The Dial thus tripled in publications and size.

Glenda Mingo, Thirza Thomas, David Coleman, and Roger Thompson look over an issue well done.

Typists are vital to any newspaper staff.

Paula and Pamela McCombs entertain our charming visitors.

Busy DuSableites hasten to serve their guests refreshments.

Valentine's Day Deligh

Cupid's arrows of love pierced the hearts of all DuSable High students when Barrington visited the Human Relations Club on February 14. Barrington was graciously welcomed into our fold as brothers and sisters who, along with us, strive to further better relations between all races.

Mr. Hesser, sponsor of the Human Relations Club, comments to Ellen Harris on how well the day has passed.

Everybody's "Got that Feeling!"

A Man and His Art

Mr. Murray DePillars, an adept Art major at Roosevelt University, is to be thanked for displaying his aesthetic paintings for DuSableites.

Mr. Minor and Mr. Dawson analyze the art of Mr. DePillars.

"Now! Isn't that beautiful?"

Murry DePillars, the artist.

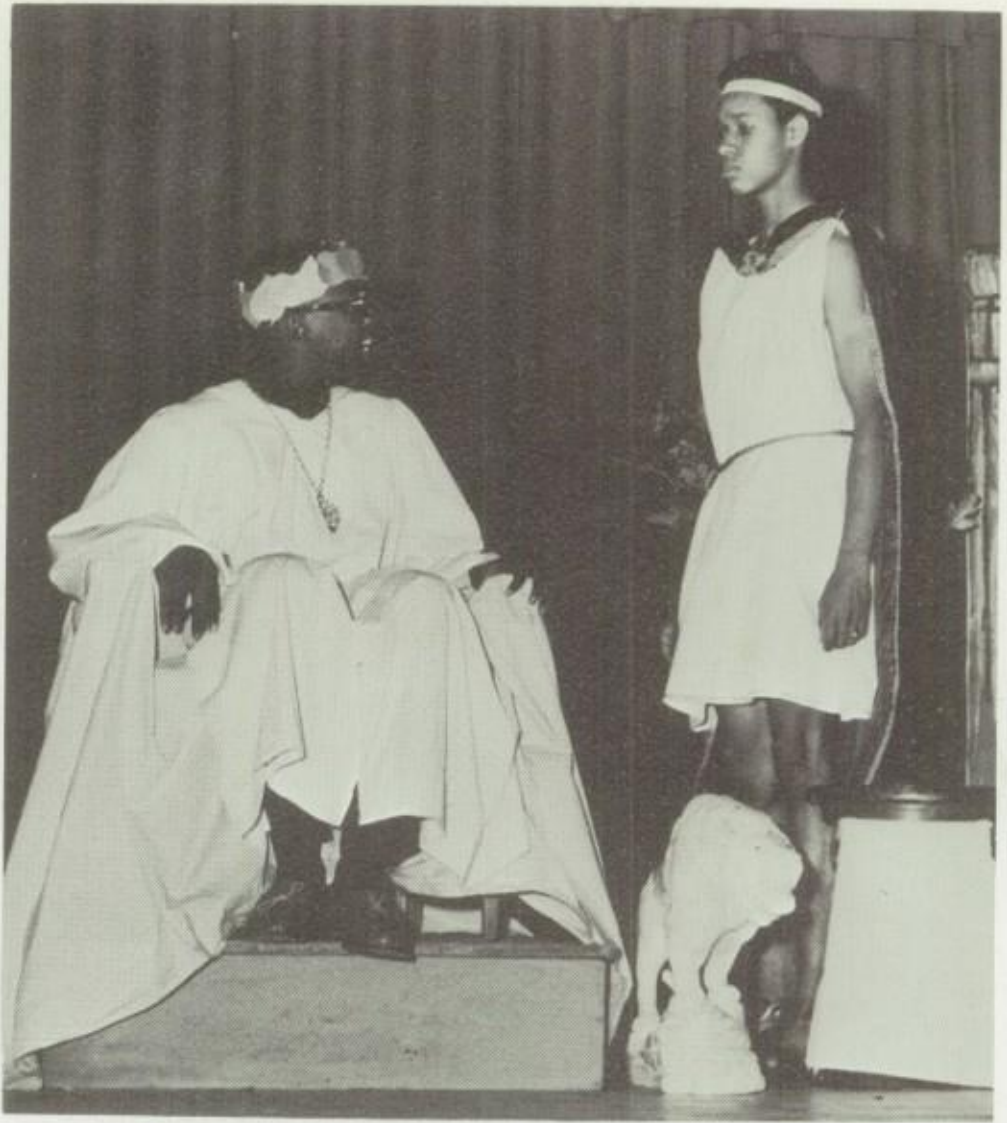

Human! Very artistic.

Ancient Greek Drama Relives!

Antigone treads solemnly to her tomb of doom.

Creon rejects the pleas of Haemon to free Antigone.

The bloody corpse of Haemon is mourned by all.

On November 14, 1967, DuSable's Speech and Drama Class transformed the Greek tragedy "Antigone" by Sophocles into a poignant and successful production.

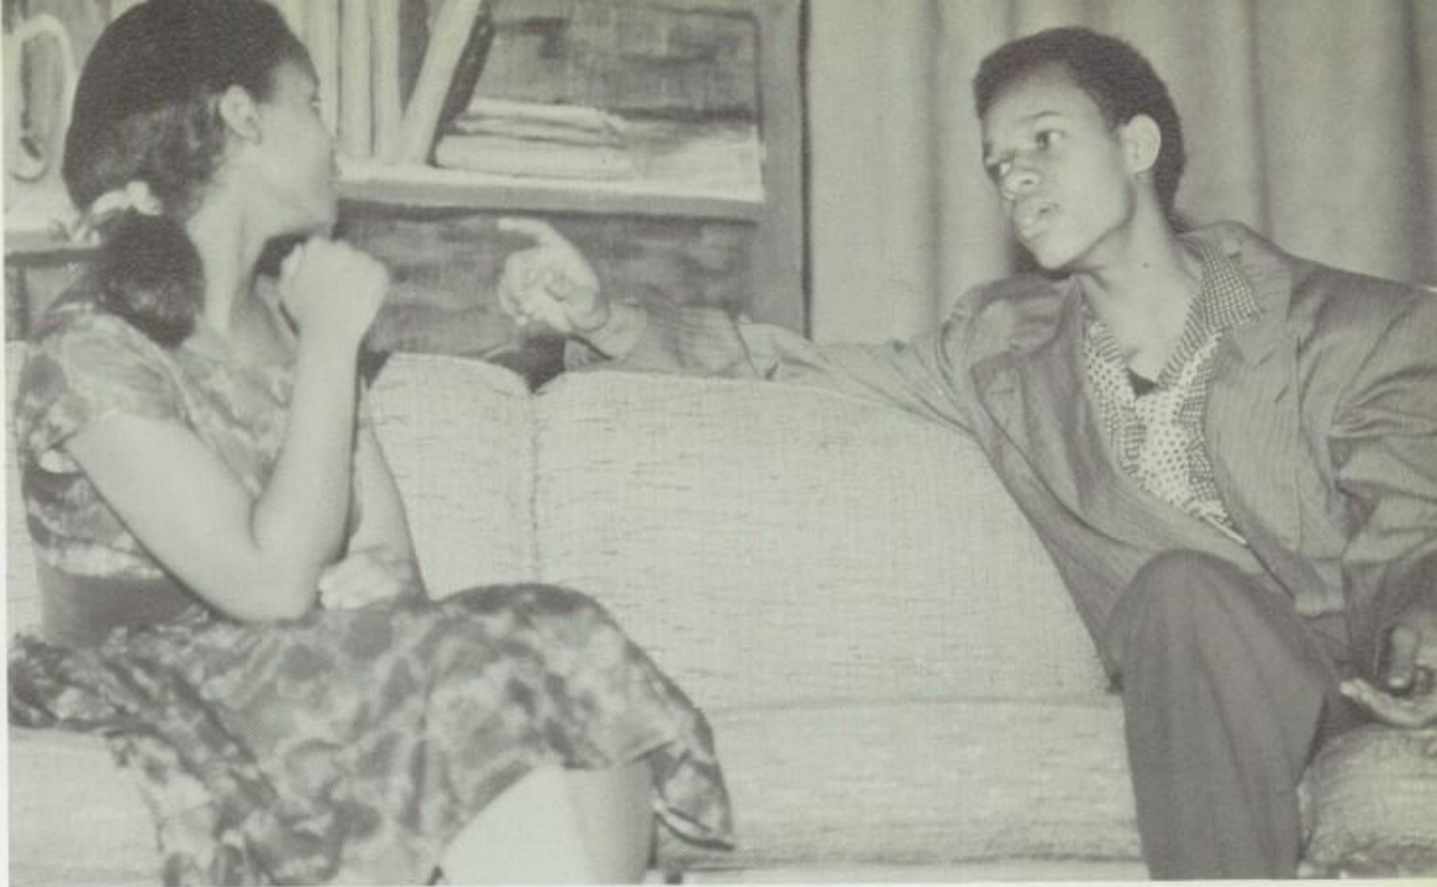

The cast was captivating as they portrayed the characters with depth and sensitivity.

The royal dancers entertain Creon.

A Thespian Triumph!

On Tuesday, March 20, DuSable's Thespian Society presented a skillful rendition of The Glass Menagerie, by Eugene O'Neal.

Viola Toliver (Laura) listens to her drunken brother.

"See! There's nothing to dancing!"

Excedrin headache number 141.

The cast: Viola Toliver, Michael Johnson, Irene Green, and Bernell Herring.

The Joy of Giving

This year the F.H.A. club held a Christmas luncheon in honor of their mothers and the teachers of the Home Economics Department. The members made and bought Christmas gifts. Afterwards, to the delight of the F.H.A. club, the beautifully wrapped gifts were contributed to a group of senior citizens.

"Letha, did you forget to put the coffee in the water?" says Miss Burns.

Serving is an art with members of the Future Homemakers of America.

A Christmas basket and gifts for the Senior Citizens.

A smile always adds to the charm of a young homemaker.

Who knows, maybe one of these young ladies will be another Edith Head!

Discovery '68!

The Du Sable science fair was truly a gathering of provocative experiments which probed the mysteries of science. Among the students who participated were Yvonne Littleton, exhibiting an experiment dealing with the human anatomy, Deborah Mc Clellan, displaying an exhibit on the life span of rodents and Leatrice Holmes with her diagrams on amphibians.

It takes a courageous cat to deal with rats!

"Would you believe this used to be as big as a building?"

"Now, it's got to work this time!"

"Both men and women have a breastbone!"

"Now isn't that something!" "What is it?"

"You see, Mr. Hamberlin, It's like this"

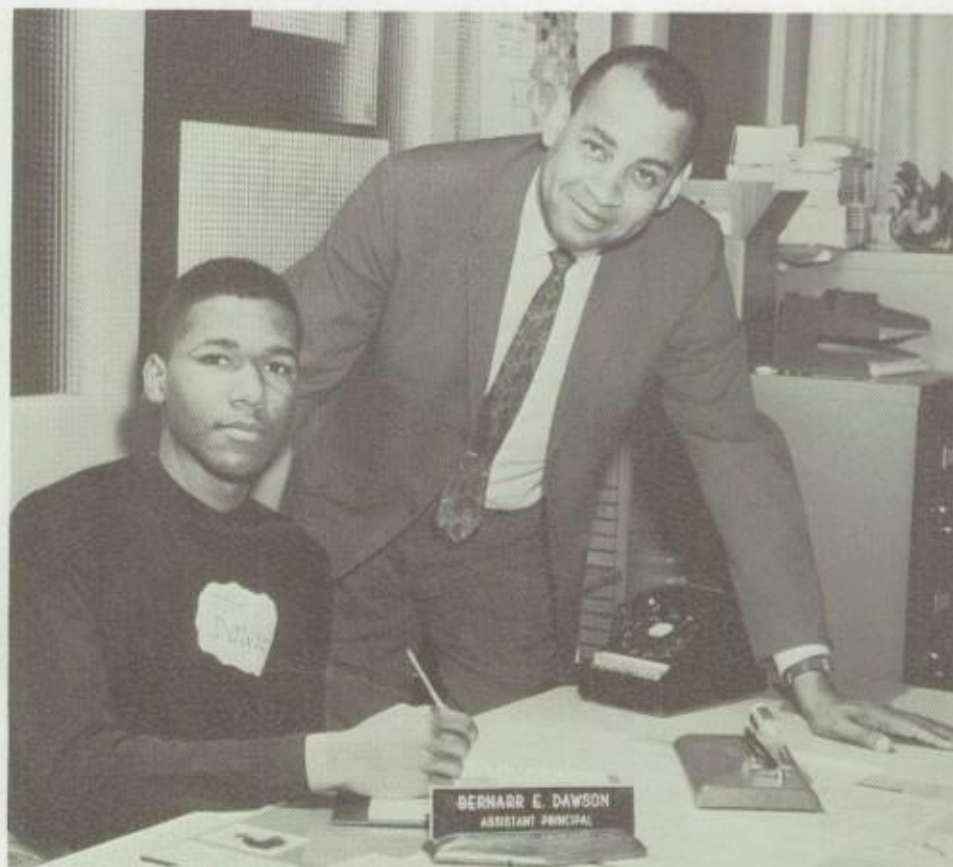

Mr. Byron Minor smiles optimistically as the new "Mr. Minor" - Arthur Thompson - assumes administrative duties.

Teacher Appreciation Week Radiates Through All

The observances and festivities of Teacher Appreciation Week were again indicative of the earnest feelings of gratitude that Du Sableites have for their hard-working faculty. The displays of the mutual regard and kindness extended by our students and faculty will always endure in our memories.

Student "Administrator" Edwin Clarke and Mr. Dawson are prepared for the challenges of the day.

Mrs. Julia Brown, Mr. Grant, Ronald Bynum, and Esther Anderson look forward to a fascinating and productive day in the Program Office.

"Appreciating teachers can involve a great deal of work!" says Glenda Mingo (front) to Hilda Lee.

Du Sable faculty relax and relate the many expressions of appreciation by Du Sableites.

Teacher Appreciation Week is incomplete without Student Take-over Day. Here Kathleen Morgan treats her classmates to a taste of her teaching techniques!

Artistic Heritage Ensemble Performs for DuSableites

Thanks to the Afro-American Club, Phil Cohran, a well-known composer, and his band came to DuSable for our Negro History Week celebrations. DuSableites will always hold dear the experience of hearing Afro-American rhythms, songs, and beholding a beautiful and expressive African dance.

The beauty of the African dance is made more evident by this lovely performer.

Phil Cohran tells audience about his African inspired melodies.

Members of Afro-American Club with sponsor, Mr. Jones (far right) model some of their African inspired clothes.

A great group of performers! Du Sable thanks you.

Always a favorite with any audience is the undeniably beautiful voice of Mrs. Ella Jackson.

The Musette, a horn with a distinct and refreshing tone, brings forth the spirit of Afro-American music.

Invited guests and friends.

"Who wants to waltz anyway?"

Highlight of the evening-- getting ready for the procession.

Lieutenant Edward Morris and his date are undoubtedly enjoying this dance.

An Evening of Enchantment

Thanks to Sergeant First Class John Peters and the entire R.O.T.C., DuSable had its first Military Ball in three years. The dinner dance was held at the Southmoor Hotel in the regal Venetian Room.

Lt. Col. Jonas Miles and Queen Felicia Cumbia.

Lula McKenzie, one of the beauties on the court.

Good food, good music, and good company make for a happy occasion.

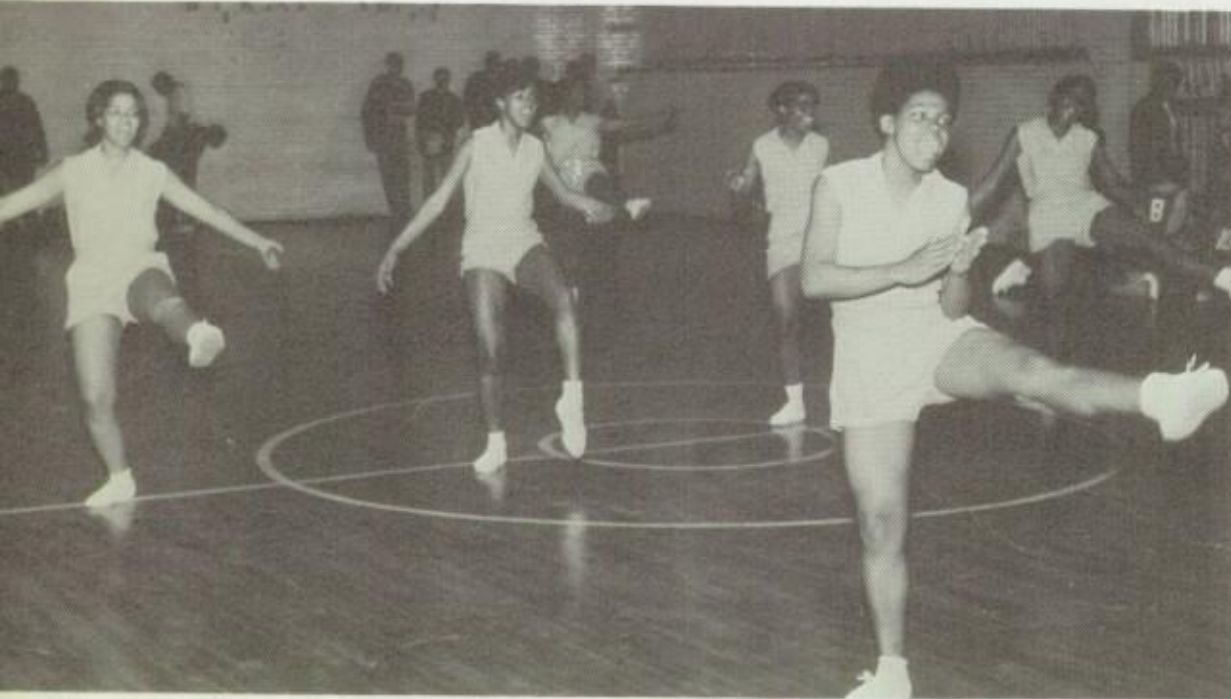

Triumph Once Again

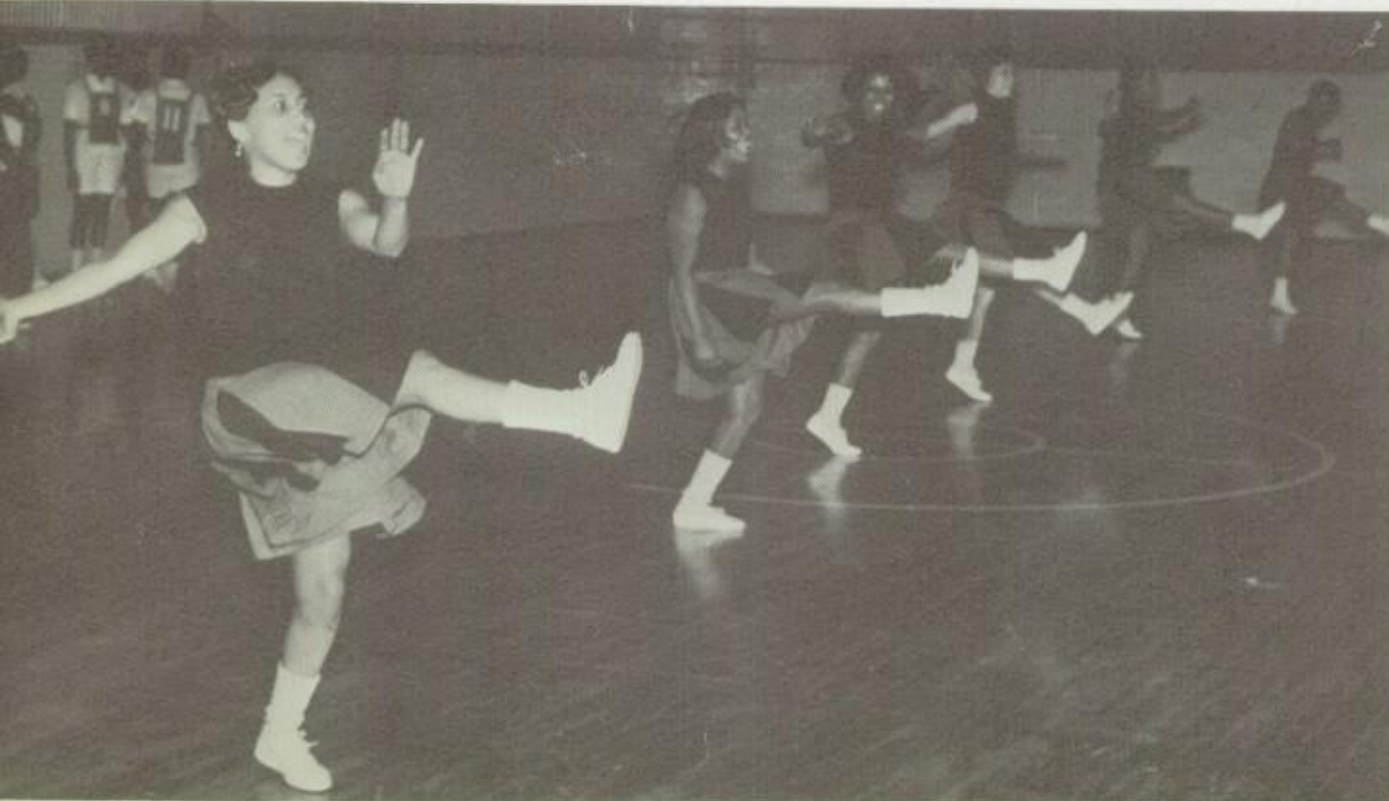

Triumphant again, the students who participated in the Annual Teacher-Student Basketball Game trounced the teachers 33-24 in an event sponsored by the Yearbook Staff. The antics of the teacher's cheer-squad kept the crowd rolling with laughter. The teachers' team was organized by Mrs. Winters and the coach for the students was Mrs. Blue. The memories of this day will always bring laughter to those who attended.

The Teachers' Cheer Squad: Mrs. Grays, Mrs. Hinton, Miss Newman, Mrs. Cheatham, Mrs. Lucas, and Mrs. Martin.

"We're the B-E-S-T!"

During half-time the teachers displayed their athletic skills.

Mrs. Martin, performing her most graceful cartwheel.

"Now, was it left foot first ...or right foot first?"

or the Students!

"I knew I could do it!"

The all-star teachers: Mrs. Harrison, Mrs. Smith, Miss Caldwell, Mrs. Givens, Mrs. Brown, Miss McCrumby, Mrs. Winters, and Mrs. McCant.

The students all-star team consists of Julia Saxon, Alfreda Torry, Terita Buchanan, Florine Gordon, Linda Barbee, and Rosetta Moore.

I've got it now!

"I'll get 2 points if it's the last thing I do!"

"Move out. I've got them covered!"

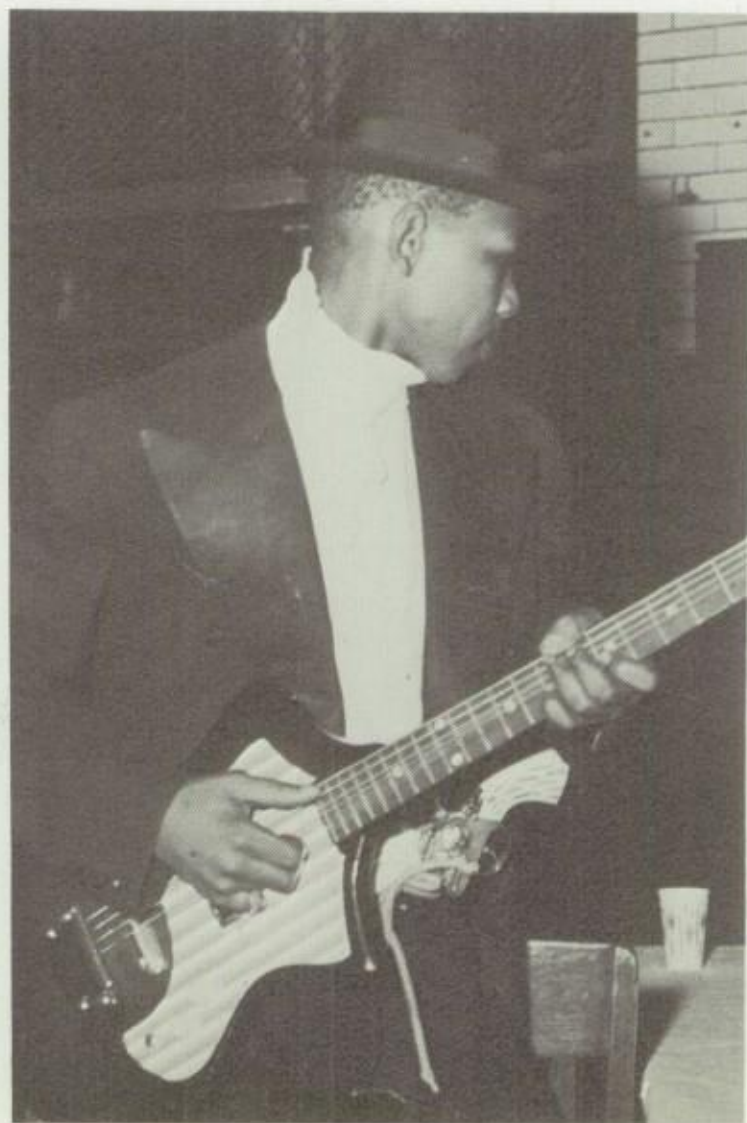

Du Sable's First Masquerade Ball!!

The undergraduates' year was highlighted by their first Masquerade Ball. The affair was sponsored by the Yearbook Staff and Senior Activities Committee. Prizes were given to students for the most original costume. Hippies, vampires, witches, and a variety of other masqueraders attended.

Calypso Time!

"Hey man! Turn on the sound!!!"

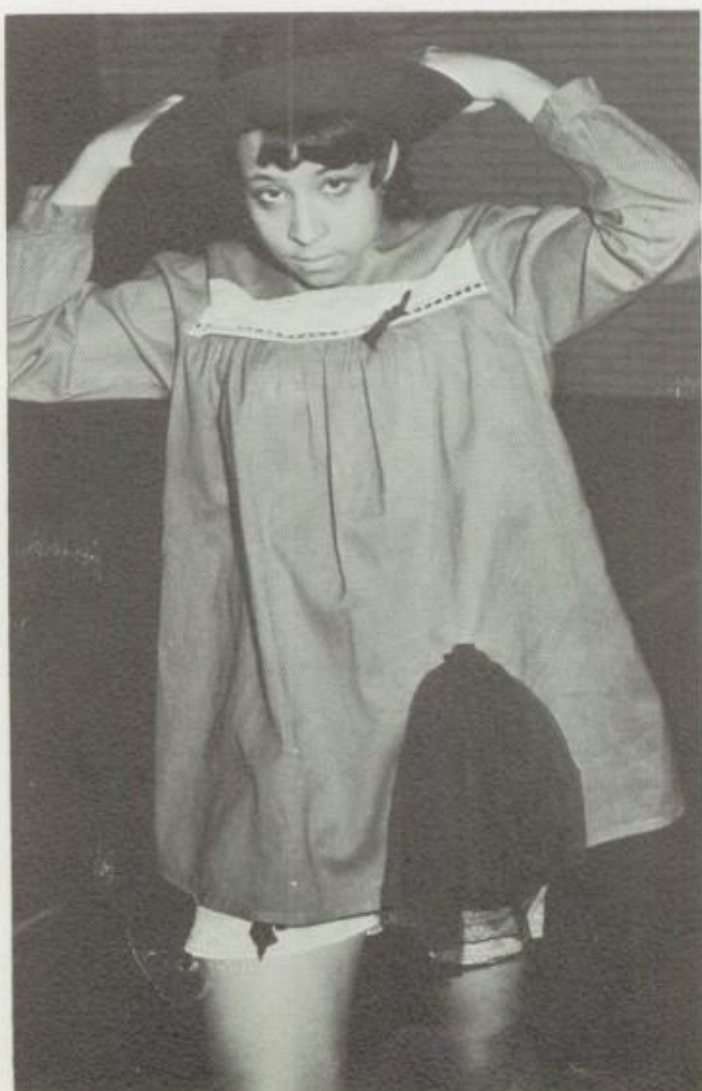

"Now here are a mini and maxi if I ever saw one?"

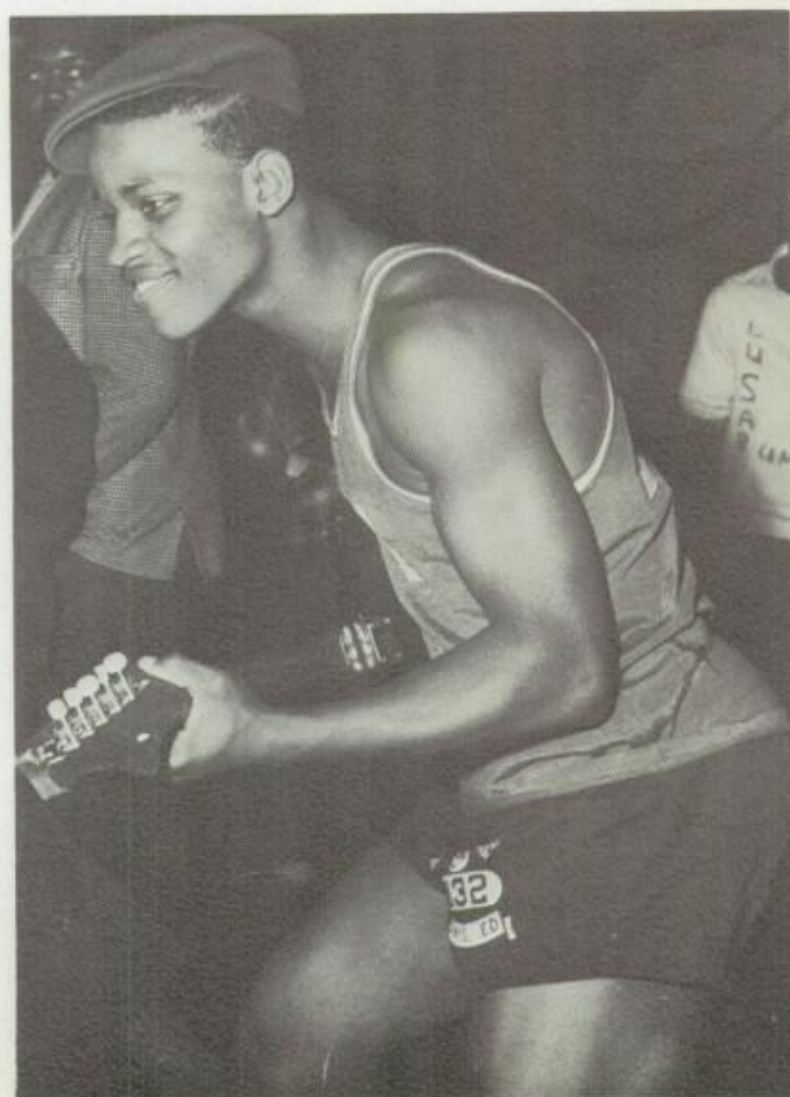

A Flower Child: Roscoe Burkes, winner of first prize in male costumes.

"What do you mean, you wouldn't let me umpire any baseball game?"

"Honestly, I'm only 10 years old!"

"A ball? A guitar? They're all the same to me. I can play them all, man."

Only the Best for Du Sableites!

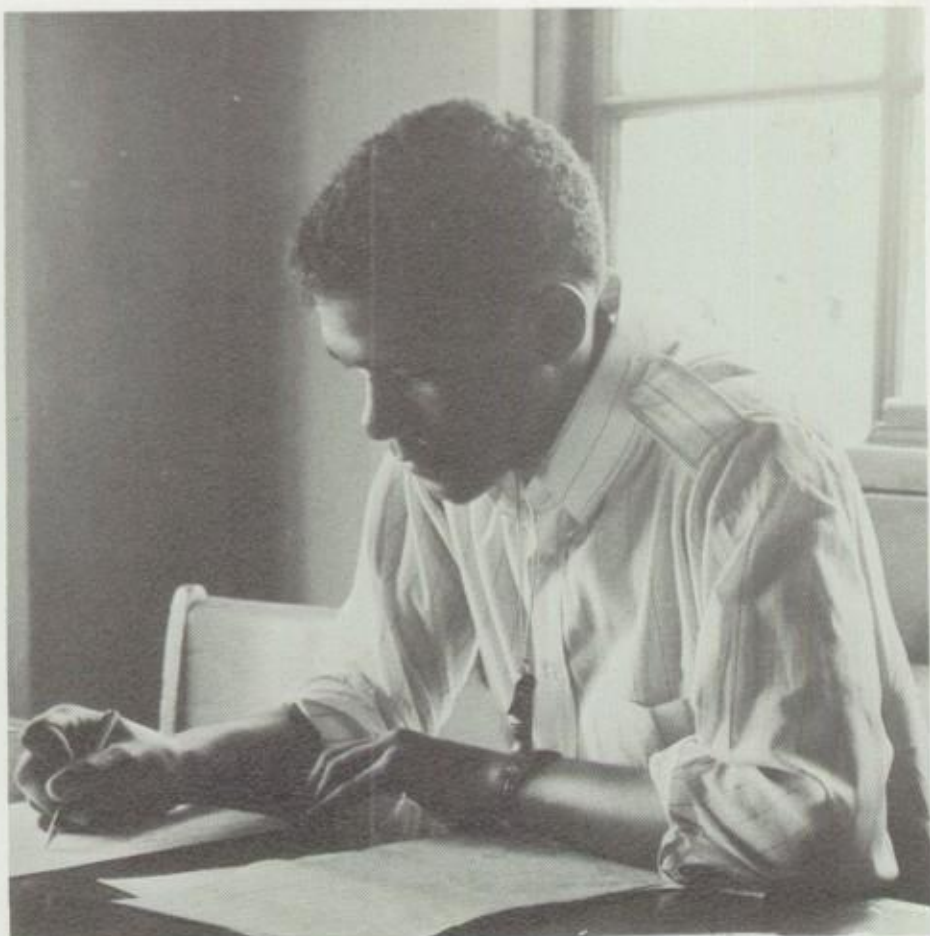

The Yearbook Staff knows that a school yearbook is, first of all, for the students. With this idea in mind staff members tackle the challenging problem of scheduling, photographing, and writing copy on all students and their school activities. Such a project is a tremendous amount of work, but the Yearbook Staff, under the guidance of Mrs. Joyce Martin, firmly believes that a beautiful yearbook for DuSable is well worth the effort put into it.

"I'll never understand how things get so junky!" says Janice Gilbert (far right) to Cleota Peoples (left) and Sheila Travis (center).

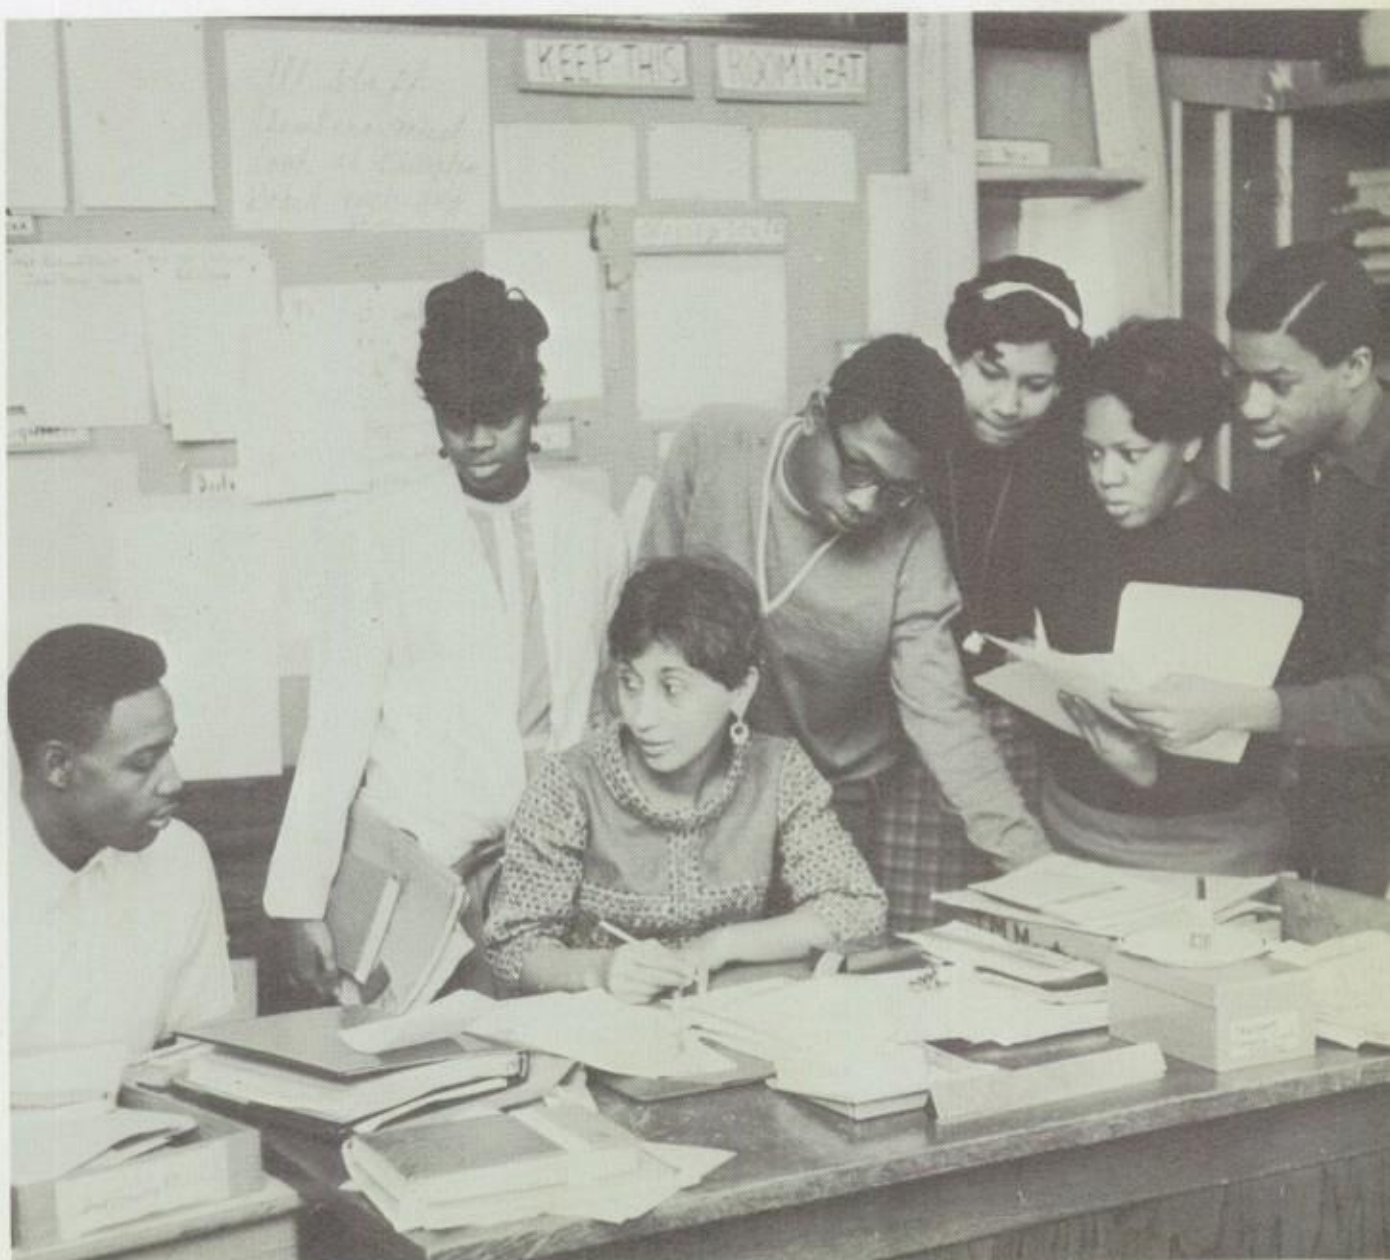

At a surprise birthday party for Mrs. Martin, yearbook sponsor, staff members grab for cake.

Edwin Clarke- section editor, copywriter, artist and more- puts his adroit mind to work for the yearbook.

Business Manager Mary Myles removes a few errors from an advertising poster.

Mrs. Martin, flanked by division student Marvin Connolly (left), class student Patricia Canady, and staff members Harold Lowery, Pat Havis, Elaine Hiller, and Eric Ramey, makes a valiant effort to help them all!

Football Team Gains in Membership and Glory!

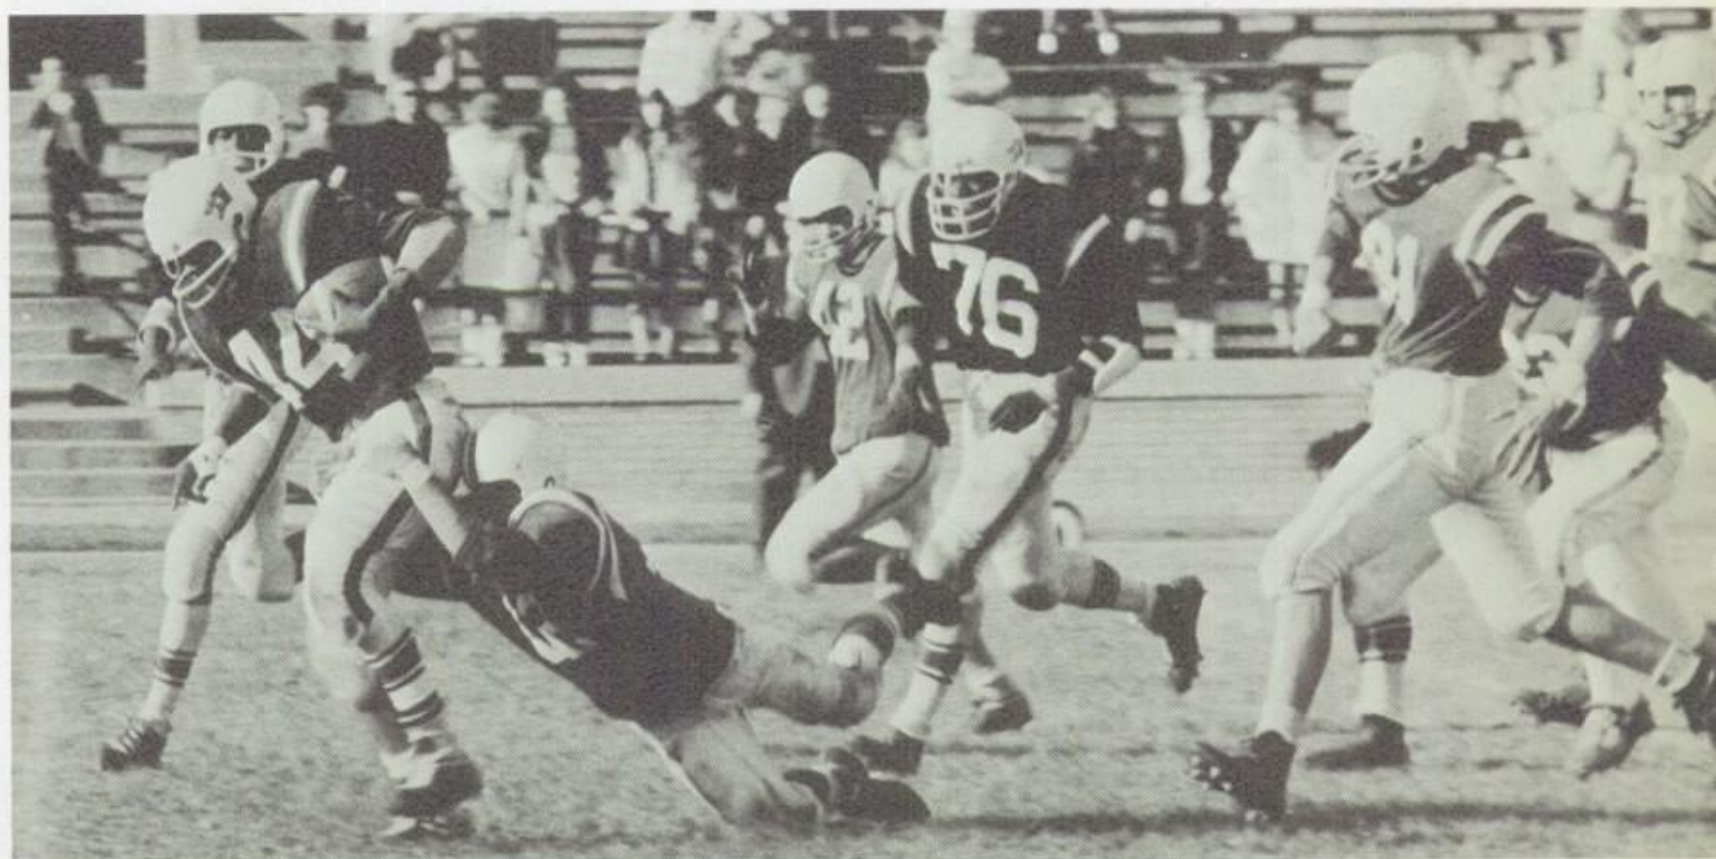

The 1967-68 Football Season saw our Panthers gain in membership as well as in victories. This year's squad had more than forty athletes, all determined to win. With the excellent coaching of Head Coach Robert Bonner and Assistant Coach Percy Harris combined with the team members' own fantastic drive, it is no wonder that they were victorious in five out of seven of their regular season games. Next year, there may even be a championship to add to our conquests as DuSableites!

"There Was a Time!"

DuSable seniors will always remember the time they had their own masquerade ball. The great variety of costumes displayed the ingenuity of the DuSableites and gave them the chance to show off their gruesome garbs and to pretend they had the personalities to go with them. Prizes were captured by Michael Johnson and his date, Paula McCombs and Roscoe Burkes. The ball was sponsored by the Senior Activities Committee, the Yearbook Staff, and the Red and Black Sales Representatives. To be sure, a "gruesome" ball was had by all.

Gruesome twosome, Michael Johnson and friend.
"What would Tarzan say?"

This Annie Oakley isn't getting away.

"Oh! Where are my gym shoes?" moans Paula McCombs.

Shirley Ewing is a young Indian maiden who is on the war path. Señorita Rosetta Stone does a "Spanish" dance.

Cinderalla (Janice Jones) has temporarily lost her fella!

"Have I told you how beautiful you look?"

"Hands off of me!"
